

Every branch of the Armed Services uses the telephone. No. 14 of a series, Field Artillery.

Long Toms—blasting unseen targets—are directed by voices flashing through this artilleryman's radio telephone "switchboard." Using its many channels, he connects the commander with spotters up front and in planes; then with battery commanders who focus tremendous firepower. He is helping soften up the long, hard road ahead.

Every time a 155mm "Long Tom" is fired, it costs Uncle Sam $37.78. Our leaders believe in using vast numbers of costly shells to prevent losing priceless American lives. Help provide the ammunition—invest all the dollars you can in War Bonds!
