

Diagram illustrating the distribution of housing types across income levels. The horizontal axis represents income levels, with 'LOWER HOUSING' on the left and 'UPPER HOUSING' on the right. A bell-shaped curve is centered over the 'UPPER HOUSING' section, indicating that higher income levels are associated with higher housing quality.

Talk Circuit

